KOHINOOR GROUP

Sound Familiar?

Leaders Need a Thinking Refresh

Leaders need to refresh how they diagnose problems, prioritize issues, and guide action.

Decisions Need a Shared Rhythm

Teams need a common way to weigh trade-offs, decide faster, and clarify ownership.

Training Must Connect to Real Work

Leadership learning should reflect Kohinoor Group's live commerce, stock, customer, campaign, and coordination realities.

Progress Must Be Visible

Managers and HR need tangible evidence that learning changes how leaders think, decide, and act.

INTRODUCING

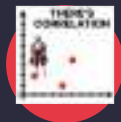

Leadership Refresh Lab

A facilitated workshop designed to help Kohinoor Group leaders refresh their critical thinking, decision-making, and problem-solving approach using real retail and live commerce scenarios.

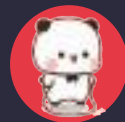

Refresh Leadership Thinking

Leaders revisit how they diagnose problems, set priorities, weigh trade-offs, and guide teams toward action.

Real Kohinoor Group Scenarios

Cases are drawn from live commerce, customer handling, stock, campaign, and cross-team coordination challenges.

Team-Based Leadership Practice

Not a lecture; leaders work through real decisions together, align perspectives, and practice shared ownership.

Tangible Leadership Outputs

Every participant leaves with worksheets, action plans, and a team decision record that can be followed up after the session.

LEARNING TOPICS

Leadership Mindset

Builds the foundation of leadership by understanding influence, purpose, leadership styles, and how to adapt when working with different types of bosses.

Effective Communication

Focuses on clear, respectful, and empathetic communication through active listening, asking better questions, and confirming understanding.

Collaboration & Problem Solving

Trains participants to work together, understand team dynamics, identify problems clearly, and solve challenges through shared decision-making.

Leadership Simulation

Applies the previous lessons through practical scenarios, roleplays, and group exercises so participants can practice leading in realistic workplace situations.
